Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

Koningsberg, March 16. O. S.

THE Polish Noblemen that stay'd to the last with King Stanislaus, are disposed to sign the following Draught of Accession.

' We the Confederated Marshals, Generals, Lords, &c. in order to put an End to the Calamities which have afflicted our Country since the Death of King Augustus II. and that we may have Cause no longer to absent ourselves from that Country, do acknowledge the Hand of God in having plac'd and fix'd K. Augustus III. elected by the other Part of the Nation, on the Throne of Poland; and the Divine Will being consequently made manifest to us in that Respect, we the more readily conform to it, because King Stanislaus has, with a Declaration by his own Mouth, set us free from all the Bands that engag'd us to him.

' Therefore we own King Augustus III. for our lawful Sovereign, and accede to that Part of the Republick which has elected him, in a firm Persuasion that his Majesty will, with all his Authority, maintain the Orthodox Faith, as well as our Privileges, Rights, and Liberties. We promise him Fidelity and Allegiance, by cancelling all Obligations or Engagements which we may have contracted with any Person or Power whatsoever, contrary to that Allegiance which we promise to our most Serene King.

' We hope that his Majesty will particularly be pleas'd to maintain the free Election of our Kings, and that he will as soon as possible, summon a General Dyet of Pacification, in which all Parties may labour effectually and jointly to remedy all the Evils with which our Country has been afflicted; that Provision may be made for the Safety of the Publick, and of his Majesty in particular; that the ancient Form of Government may be restored; and that a General Amnesty may be publish'd for all that's past, in order for the sooner Re-establishment of the Tranquillity.

' And as by our Accession to King Augustus III. the Security of his Majesty and the Nation must hereafter be reciprocal, we hope that our most Serene King will cause the foreign Troops to evacuate the Kingdom with all Speed. And to prove the Sincerity of this our Accession, we solemnly declare, that we are ready to spill the last Drop of our Blood for the vice of our most Serene King, as well as for the Preservation of our Privileges.

Ratisbon, March 22. O. S. The following is an Extract of the Decree of the Imperial Commission, which was communicated to the Dyet, with the Preliminaries of the Peace, on the 14th Inst.

' His Imperial Majesty, after having recapitulated the Steps he has taken to maintain Peace, even to the Prejudice of his own Interests; and having for that End quoted what pass'd in 1714, at the Negotiations of Rastadt, and in 1722, with Regard to the 4th Article of the Quadruple Alliance, Declares, that he has made extraordinary Efforts, even beyond what he was oblig'd to, and more than any of his Predecessors ever made, for opposing the Arms of the confederated Crowns who had declared War against him, and for preventing the Dangers with which the Empire was threaten'd; that the Plan of Pacification projected by the two Maritime Powers having pay'd the Way to a Negotiation, it was thought fit to keep the same secret, in order to hasten the Great Work of Peace; that the Alteration in the said Plan, with regard to Lorain, had been approv'd by both those Powers; that the Cession of Tuscany, Parma and Placentia, was more advantageous to the Empire than the Cession of Lorain could be prejudicial to it, the rather because the Crown of France was under an Engagement not to meddle in the Affairs of the Empire; and not to start any Pretext for a Reunion or Dependence; that as to the Dominions yielded to Savoy, the Rights of the Empire have been preserv'd intire; that the speedy Re-establishment of the general Tranquillity, has been the sole View of the Method of Negotiation hitherto; that the Effects of those now carrying on at Vienna with the French Minister, M. du Theil, will soon be visible; and that they relate particularly to the Restitution of certain Fortresses of the Empire; whereupon his Imperial Majesty exhorts the States forthwith to give their Opinion, &c.

Rome, March 13. O. S. A greater Number than usual of Spanish and Neapolitan Officers having been observed here of late, and that they insist a great Number of Recruits for the Service of the Court of Naples, it occasioned a general Murmur among the Populace, who have actually taken Occasion to mutiny for these two Days past, upon account of a Vessel that was lately stranded on the Coast of the Ecclesiastical State, on board whereof 'tis said, there were no less than 70 Men that had been insist'd in this City to be transported to Naples. The Populace pretending that they had been taken away by Force, went raging mad to the Houses where the Spanish or Neapolitan Officers lodged, to know if they had any Persons there that were impressed. At the House of one of the Spanish Officers they found three Men that were engag'd here, whom they had shut up and handcuff'd; but they were immediately set at Liberty; and the Mob being the more enraged at this Discovery, abused all the Spanish and Neapolitan Officers they could find, rifled their Habitations, threw their Furniture out at the Windows, and actually went and insulted the Palace of Cardinal Acquaviva the Spanish Minister, and the Palace Farnese, where the Count de Porta lives, who is the Minister of Don Carlos; breaking the Windows of both those Palaces with Stones, and casting Mud at their Arms. The Pope and his Ministers being confounded at this Riot, and forc'd to satisfy an unruly Multitude, caused some of the Spanish Recruiting Officers to be imprison'd, and having at the same time sent out large Bodies of Militia to patrol thro' the Streets, for preventing farther Mischief, the Mob is now become quiet. Mean time it looks as if Heaven and Earth continually conspired to find out new Plagues for this Court. 'Tis easy to foresee, that what has now happened, will be attended with scurvy Consequences, by reason of the Satisfaction that will, no doubt, be demanded for the Insults committed upon the sacred Mansions above-mention'd; and 'tis well if the four Spanish Regiments that are going to pass through the Ecclesiastical State for Naples, don't leave some Marks of their Repentment behind them.

Monday last there was an extraordinary Congregation of 14 Cardinals, to whom the Pope had referred the Examination of the Proposal made on the Part of Portugal, for healing the Breach that has long subsisted betwixt the Holy See and that Kingdom; but the Congregation, after having taken a great deal of Time to consider of the Matter, resolv'd to submit it to the infallible Decision of the Pope himself, who has made a Declaration, which he has injoin'd to be kept a profound Secret, under the Seal of the Holy Office.

One of the Duke of Berwick's two Sons, who is about 12 Years old, arriving here last Tuesday from Madrid, went immediately to wait on the Chevalier de St. George, whom he calls his Great Uncle, to make his Apology for his short Stay, because he was oblig'd to set out next Morning for Naples to see his Father.

Derby, April 1. Late this Evening the Assizes ended here, which prov'd a Maiden one, none being capitally convicted. The following Persons were try'd, and receiv'd Sentence as follows, viz. George Lomas, for forging the Hands of Thomas Chetham and Richard Bagshaw, Esqrs. to a Certificate; to stand in the Pillory at 12 o'clock one Hour, and to be imprison'd six Months. Mary Kirk, for stealing a Brae Kettle; burnt in the Hand. Margret White for stealing a Kettle; continu'd till the next Assizes. Elizabeth Hill, for the Murder of a Bastard Child; acquitted. Charles Horne, for the same; acquitted. John Hibbert, convicted of Felony, in stealing from Mr. John Bird, of Elton, one Silver Tankard, one Silver Porringer, and five Silver Spoons, &c. order'd for Transportation. The noted Ellin Beere, for receiving stolen Goods; acquitted. Elizabeth Bingley, for the Murder of her Bastard Child; acquitted. Sarah Stafford, for stealing certain Goods, of one William Baker; acquitted. John Micock, for stealing four Dishes of Lead Ore; burnt in the Hand.

Isaac Shemel and Robert Froggat, for stealing three half Pigs of Lead, &c. the former acquitted and the latter order'd for Transportation. Richard and William Williamson, for stealing several Bars of Iron; acquitted. Francis Longdon and Anne his Wife, Thomas, Alice and Grace Longdon, for the Murder of one Ellen Drabble late of Calow, in the Liberty and Hundred of Scarfdale; acquitted. Caleb Allen, for breaking into the House of one William Creswick of Chesterfield; acquitted. John Simpson, charged by one Horton with robbing him on the Highway; was honourably acquitted and discharged; he having always had the Character of an honest and an industrious Man where he liv'd. The Prosecutor Horton bearing the contrary Character, and the Populace being incens'd against him on Account of his Procedure in this Affair, as soon as the Tryal was over, he was pelted with Dirt through the Streets, for near a Quarter of a Mile, was thrown down several Times and very much bruised; and had not a Justice of the Peace gone and ordered the Constables to take him from the Mob, he would hardly have escaped with his Life. One Woman who had been convicted of stealing several Things in this Town, as she was coming from the Hall with some of her Fellow Prisoners, slip'd into the Crowd and has not since been heard of.

BEING a select and Choice Composition

Of the richest Cordials and Restoratives, reduced with much Pains and Skill into a most pleasant Confection: And is invented particularly for the Relief of such Ladies, Gentlemen, and others, who labour under such Infirmitie, that hinder Conception in Women, or cause Impotency in Men; and is daily taken with wonderful Success by such; as many Hundreds that have been cured by it, both Men and Women, sufficiently testify; this being the only Form in Physick that can produce such noble and surprizing Effects, as is daily experienced to the unspeakable Joy and Comfort of the vast Numbers of both Sexes, that have found the desired Benefit and Success, by taking this unparalleled Cordial.

This noble Cordial Confection is equally serviceable to ancient People, whose natural Moisture is decayed, and Juices as it were dried up; nay, where there is an universal Feebleness, Lowness of Spirits, or Want of Appetite, or any other Decay thro' Age, &c. this noble Restorative is nourishing, strengthening, and enlivening to the whole human Frame, to such a Degree as was never found in any Medicine before it. It is also of the greatest Service to such as are naturally of a weak Constitution, be they young or old; and to such as have enfeebled a good and strong Habit of Body by Excesses of any Kind; and answers, in all such like Cases, both Food and Physick, as you will see by the Directions given with the Medicine; which,

The Incomparable POWDER for Cleaning the TEETH,

Has withstood, by its most excellent and known Virtues, the Attempts of many repeated Counterfeits; some imitating it by the Name of Powder, others under several other Names; therefore pray take Notice, that the only true effictual, and original Powder, is sold no where else, but as mention'd below: It is sent for in large Quantities to the Plantations beyond the Seas, to whom good Allowance is given; and is as effictual in the East or West Indies as at London.

WHICH has given so great Satisfaction to most of the Nobility and Gentry in England, for above 30 Years that it hath been published, and vast Quantities of the same still continue to be sold.

It is sold only at Mrs. King's Toyshop, the Blue-coat-Boy, against the Cross-Keys Tavern in Cornhill; and at Mrs. Markham's Toyshop, the Seven Stars under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street, and no where else in London; but in the Country, at Mr. Rogers's a Linnen-Draper in Warwick, at 1 s. each Box.

At once using it makes the Teeth as white as Ivory, tho' never so black or yellow, and effectually preserves them from rotting, or decaying, continuing them sound to exceeding old Age. It wonderfully cures the Scourvy in the Gums, prevents Rheum or Desfluxion, kills Worms at the Roots of the Teeth, and thereby hinders the Tooth-ach. It admirably fastens loose Teeth, being a neat cleanly Medicine, of a pleasant and grateful Scent, and in Virtue far exceeds any Thing ever yet found out for these Purposes.

All the Nobility, Gentry, &c. who send to Mrs. Markham's for the Powder for Teeth, are desired to give strict Orders not to mistake the Shop, (MARKHAM at length is under the Seven Stars) because most of the Toyemen in her Neighbourhood, seeing Multitudes go to her Shop for it, have trump'd up Counterfeits and sell their Stuff in Imitation of our known and approved Powder, in Prejudice to the Publick, &c.

The LIP-SALVE.

Which is so much esteem'd, and of so many Years large Experience, and whose Virtues vastly exceed any Counterfeits, is sold at the same Places at 1 s. each Box.

For in two or three Hours time it heats them, tho' never so rough or chapt; prevents the Skin from peeling, and makes them delicately soft and smooth, giving them a becoming rubicund Colour; the Fragrancy of its Odour also renders the Breath fine and sweet, and it may be eaten for its Safety.

N. B. Mrs. King is lately removed from the Blue-coat-Boy against the Cross-Keys Tavern in Cornhill.
